

Lectors

Schedule for November 29, 2020 – February 14, 2021

★ indicates a holiday weekend

▶ indicates special instructions

I am very grateful for your presence and ministry as lectors for our 9:00 AM Sunday Masses. This is a vital ministry. “In the hearing of God’s word, the Church is built up and grows, and in the signs of the liturgical celebration God’s wonderful, past works in the history of salvation are presented anew as mysterious realities.”

Here is our schedule for the upcoming weeks for the 9:00 a.m. Mass in English. We’re still scheduled for one week at a time with one lector only per Mass. (This helps reduce the number of people who will be touching the ambo and the Lectionary.)

The intercessory prayers/prayer of the faithful will continue to be led from the ambo, so you don’t need to travel to the other side of the sanctuary. If there are announcements to be made, I’ll take care of them for now (or get the priest to do it).

I pray that you keep yourselves healthy. If you feel sick in any way on a Sunday, please stay home and call one of the others to fill in for you.

Thank you!

▶ The new liturgical year and Lectionary: Year B (in the 2021 workbook) begins on November 29th.

Lector: Ruth Liszewski

▶ PRAYERFUL READING, OR LECTIO DIVINA

On p. 15 of your workbook (and elsewhere throughout the book) is a reminder of an excellent way to pray over the readings as part of your preparation as a lector. Rather than preparing in a rush just to make sure you can pronounce all of the words, spend more time with the scripture passages and really get to know them. If you have a deeper understanding of the reading, it will show up in the way you proclaim the scripture passage.

★ Thursday, December 24

(Vigil of the Nativity of the Lord)

- ▶ The choice of readings on Christmas Eve is from the Nativity of the Lord Vigil, pp. 20-24 in your 2021 workbook.
